Your Mother's Influence on Your Relationship with God

Now look at how your relationship with your mother has influenced your perception of your heavenly Father.

To make a comparison, transfer all of the check marks you made for your mother to the shaded columns.

When you have completed this, transfer the check marks you made on the page "Evaluating My Relationship with God". To make them more obvious, use an "x" for this category. Put them in the white columns in the appropriate places.

Characteristic	always		very often		sometimes		hardly ever		never		don't know gentle
stern
loving
aloof
disapproving
distant
close and intimate
kind
angry
caring
demanding
supportive
interested
discipliner
gracious
harsh
wise
holy leader
provider
trustworthy
joyful
forgiving
good cherishing of me
compassionate
impatient
unreasonable
strong protective passive
encouraging
sensitive
just unpredictable												