

Bible Missionary Project Grading Sheet

Map of Location where the missionary serves	/5 pts
Pictures	/5pts
Daily Life	/5pts
Personal Questions (pick 2) What brings you joy? Who are your sounding boards (mentors)—the people with whom you can be vulnerable and open? What are the biggest challenges in your personal, relational, spiritual and vocational life? Do you make the time (even if it costs something) to be still, regroup and process? How has being in full-time ministry affected your family relationships and your marriage?	/10 pts
Faith Related Questions (pick 2) How has God been speaking to you lately? Is your personal faith and walk with God being fed? How? What have you learned from Him in the past few months? What have you been asking God for? Are you confident that you're where God wants you or are you questioning your presence/work there?	/10 pts
Family Questions (pick 2) What does a typical day/week look like for you? How has your family adjusted to mission life? Is everyone if the family involved in the mission work? If so, what are their roles	/10 pts
Ministry Questions (pick 2) What aspect of your ministry do you enjoy the most? What is the most taxing part of what you do? Who advocates for you within your mission? Do you feel that your superiors and colleagues understand and support you as a person? Do you feel safe in your foreign home and culture? Is there something (tangible and/or intangible) that would make your life easier or more fulfilling overseas? What do you wish you could ask for from supporters and extended family?	/10 pts
2 Of Your Own Questions	/10 pts
Who Are The People They Serve?	/5 pts
History Of The Area They Are Serving In?	/5pts
Project Is Done on Poster Board or Movie	/5pts
Presentation- Student presents information in a logical, interesting sequence that the	/5pts audience can follow

Content Knowledge- Student demonstrates full knowledge with explanation and elaboration	/5pts
Delivery- Student used a clear voice and was prepared to deliver presentation	/5pts
All group members were active participants in the project	/5pts